“A Product of The Bakersfield Californian Specialty Publications Division”

PRODUCT Information

Kern Business Journal is a bi-monthly publication. The Bakersfield Californian Specialty Publications division works closely with the County of Kern, Kern Economic Development Corporation (KEDC) and the Greater Bakersfield Chamber of Commerce. It contains news and information from local Kern County business leaders and organizations. We cover everything from Bakersfield to Boron!

The primary objective of Kern Business Journal is to be the premier provider of Kern County Business information. Through this publication we strive to do the following:

- Strengthen Kern County's brand image by highlighting what Kern County has to offer in the way of business climate, workforce and location.
- Showcase what Kern County business is all about. Promote Kern County to potential new out-of-area businesses and to local businesses looking to expand.
- Inform local entrepreneurs about Kern County business trends, growth opportunities, industries and events throughout the county while showcasing industry leaders.

Circulation

- Distribution is 10,000 with 2,500 in selected racks for free distribution and the remaining 7,500 direct mailed to Kern County business professionals.
